this cutting edge handbook explores the interactive and intergenerational nature of literacy across diverse environments supporting disadvantaged families through tailored programs it provides an extensive exploration of family literacy addressing early childhood literacy development parenting education and intervention services because equity and instruction are inextricably bound why are equity visits such a critical first step to increasing opportunity and access for our under served students because they take instructional rounds to a new level providing a powerful lens for investigating the intersections of equity and instruction after all how can we possibly deliver equitable learning experiences opportunities and outcomes for our students without first pinpointing problems of practice that s where equity visits will prove absolutely indispensable to district and school administrators it details how to combine a strong focus on instruction with explicit intentional efforts to address systemic inequities inside you ll find a range of data collection activities and tools to target central issues of equity in your school clear guidelines on how to investigate the ways instructional practices structures and beliefs lead to inequitable educational experiences and how these are often masked in the day to day life of schools and districts a frank discussion of how to make race and racism an explicit part of investigating and addressing educational inequities voices of school and district leaders who have taken crucial first steps to become equity warriors recommendations on how to develop policies initiatives and practices to confront those inequities few dispute that instructional improvement must be a central focus of educational leadership but for too long achieving educational equity has been absent from the conversation here is your opportunity to ensure equity occupy a central spot in data collection and analysis and be explicitly discussed at all levels of your school or district organization in short essential reading and doing for all administrators grounded in cutting edge theory and research about literacy development this book is filled with practical assessment and instructional ideas for teachers of pre k through grade 3 engaging vignettes show how everyday conversations and activities offer rich opportunities both for evaluating children s current level of knowledge and for helping them progress toward more sophisticated and rewarding interactions with reading and writing throughout the book highlights ways to work effectively with english language learners and their families a theme that is the exclusive focus of two chapters other timely topics covered include creative uses of technology and ways to incorporate popular culture into the classroom over two dozen reproducible assessment tools and handouts enhance the utility of this volume as an instructional resource professional development tool or graduate level text early childhood education spans the human life from birth to age 8 infants and toddlers experience life more holistically than any other age group social emotional cognitive language and physical lessons are not learned separately by very young children adults who are most helpful to young children interact in ways that understand that the child is learning from the whole experience not just that part of the experience to which the adult gives attention although early childhood education does not have to occur in the absence of the parent or primary caregiver this term is sometimes used to denote education by someone other than these the parent or primary caregiver both research in the field and early childhood educators view the parents as an integral part of the early childhood education process early childhood education takes many forms depending on the theoretical and educational beliefs of the educator or parent other terms those are often used interchangeably with early childhood education are early childhood learning early care and early education much of the first two years of life are spent in the creation of a child s first sense of self or the building of a first identity because this is a crucial part of children s makeup how they first see themselves how they think they should function how they expect others to function in relation to them early care must ensure that in addition to carefully selected and trained caregivers links with family home culture and home language are a central part of program policy if care becomes a substitute for rather than a support of family children may develop a less than positive sense of who they are and where they come from because of their child care experience this book presents the latest research in this vital field this newly revised second edition looks at ways in which teachers can develop children's abilities in speaking and listening as required by the national curriculum the authors discuss the links between language and learning offer case studies and suggestions for classroom practice and provide stimulating activities to help pupils to become more articulate coherent and effective in standard english the book is a suitable text for students taking primary initial teacher training courses it will also be welcomed as a practical handbook for primary teachers this report profiles 13 exemplary adult literacy programs and 6 innovative practices throughout canada compiled through personal contacts of the researcher and knowledge of the field the programs described represent institutional programs workplace programs and community based programs for each of the programs the following information is provided background objectives staffing clients delivery administration new activities outreach funding and contact person with address and telephone number a project summary statement is also included the innovative practices are described informally this volume contains a number of frank smith's classic papers and others from sources not always easily accessible it also contains some afterthoughts in which he responds candidly to the questions and challenges he most frequently receives they include why are you so rude about teachers what you say is impossible how can you teach a child who isn't interested how will children learn if they are not continually corrected and what would your ideal school be like this volume is segmented into four sections historical changes in reading processes of reading and literacy models of reading and literacy processes and new paradigms the process section should assist students in understanding and visualizing the exploration of important research questions
